These samples should meet the size, weight and pricing requirements as negotiated with the Buyer. For example, if the Buyer negotiates with a vendor to purchase 12-ounce cans of tomatoes priced 2 for a dollar, the sample should be a 12-ounce can of tomatoes priced 2 for a dollar, not a 6-ounce can of tomatoes priced fifty cents. If you have any questions regarding product samples, please contact your Buyer.
- ☒ Product Images All vendors are expected to provide live samples of a new product to our image-processing department. These samples should reflect the exact dimensions and packaging of the final production product. It is particularly important that samples submitted reflect the packaging that is planned to be shipped to Transnational Foods. Mock-ups must be identical in size to the production product; Mock-ups must reflect the packaging look of the production product; Production product must be sent to Transnational Food's offices to replace the mock-up as soon as feasible.

The NALT must be sent prior to printing the final packaging. Every new food item requires a NALT, and it must be renewed biannually (for continuing items). Lab tests shall be performed at a 3rd party food testing laboratory. The laboratory report will be sent to TF to be archived.

In the event the general liability policy has a limit of less than $1,000,000 per occurrence, $2,000,000 aggregate, the requested sum may be provided via an umbrella or excess liability policy.

The insurance policy must be written by a carrier with an A. M. Best's rating of at least A-VIII. Some exceptions may apply, and additional limits may be requested for certain products. If A. M. Best's rating is not available, a similar rating by a credible rating organization will be considered.

The policy should be in effect for no less than 18 months after the arrival date on which the last product is provided to Transnational Foods. In the event the policy expires after the order is placed, but before delivery, the policy must be renewed with similar terms and conditions as the expiring policy. Vendor shall provide Transnational Foods with current certificates of insurance, and policies shall contain a provision that there will be no cancellation, reduction or non-renewal in coverage without first giving Transnational Foods 30 days' prior written notice.

VENDORS LIABILITY – Vendor's insurance shall in no way limit Vendor's liability or obligation to indemnify completely the indemnities.

IV. INVOICING

Lack of adherence to invoicing standards and incorrect information results in lost time for Transnational Foods and delayed payment of invoices for our Vendors. Transnational Foods requires vendors to comply with the invoicing guidelines set forth below to ensure timely and accurate payment of invoices by Accounts Payable. Failure to comply with these guidelines will be considered a deterioration in vendor performance and may result in a reduction in payment or a chargeback.

Mail invoices to:

Transnational Foods, LLC.
1110 Brickell Ave suite 808
Miami, FL33131

Or alternatively, invoices may be sent via email to: AP-TF@tfinc.com

Do not bill for merchandise prior to physical shipment of merchandise.

Transnational Foods strives to pay vendors in a timely manner. Exceptions may be the result of discrepancies between the purchase order and the invoice: pricing, quantity, and/or terms.

Transnational Foods performs a 3-way match: purchase order, warehouse receipt, and invoice. Payment is based on the match and driven from the terms and conditions of the purchase order.

To ensure prompt and accurate payment, it is imperative that the information on the purchase order is verified prior to the shipment of the product. Contact the Transnational Foods Customer Representative for resolution of any purchase order discrepancies prior to shipment.

Inquiries should be addressed in writing with as much supporting documentation attached to the inquiry as possible. Inquiries will be addressed in the order received, regardless of how the documentation is delivered (U.S. mail, overnight mail, fax, e-mail).

If a satisfactory response to inquiries is not received within 60 days, contact the Accounts Payable Supervisor. (Please reference the section titled Introduction for the Listing of Contacts.)

III. DOCUMENTS FOR FOREIGN SUPPLIERS' VERIFICATION PROGRAMS

1. General

As Food Importers we are responsible for the food safety of the products sold throughout the United States. To better reflect our responsibility and commitment to food safety along the supply and distribution chain, we evaluate suppliers for their: Food Safety Plan (FSP), Certificates of Analysis (COA's) (where applicable), and by requiring specific documentation to evidence compliance with the regulations.

To fulfill this activity, TF hired a Qualified Individual in Preventive Controls and Foreign Supplier verification Programs, who, in addition to other activities, evaluates that the manufacturing and other companies of the supply chain (including, primary production, delivery and deposit), comply with the FSMA requirements and other complementary requirements.

While FSMA rules include and recognize safety programs such as HACCP for Fish / low acid canned food regs. / Juices / NCIMS dairy), in TF we extended the requirement for risk analysis based on preventive controls.

FSMA exceeds and covers other regulations of the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR), which in some cases have been amended to observe compliance with the law, for example: 21 CFR Part 101 - Food Labeling: Revision of the Nutrition and Supplement Facts Labels (CFR, Title 21, Parts 70 to 82 sections 601,706- 201,402 and others, for color additives.

- Also keep in mind that the FSP, Hazard Analysis and the control activities must specifically identify the products.
- During the FSP review, support documents or records, for example: "pesticide-free" certificates of analysis, pasteurization validation studies, industrial sterilization, as well as records of allergen verification controls or other to prove the food safety might be request.

B. Upload to Repositrak a Food Defense Plan with the following sections:

You are expected to read, and when applicable, you will check your products and processes and will make sure that you comply with the requirements mentioned. Once you sign the acknowledgment, you will either need to upload the note to Repositrak or to send it.

Note:

In case of a dispute, claim or similar, TF will use the signed document as evidence in its favor.

E. Changes Communications

If the product, processes, ingredients, recipes, specifications, and packaging change, you shall communicate to TF Quality Director (Daniela Innamorato- dinnamorato@tfinc.com) within 72hours of the change.

The changes that are important are those related to Food Safety Hazard Analysis, Social and Ethical Compliance or other regulations.

IV. MERCHANDISE ON HOLD/ WITHDRAWS/ RECALLS/ RETURNS/ CORRECTIVE ACTIONS

1. Non-Compliance

If the vendor realizes their released product does not comply with food safety, quality or other specifications, an immediate notification needs to be sent to Food Safety, Quality & Regulatory Compliance Department (please see contact information in Page 4).

If Transnational Foods receives overages, incorrect merchandise, mislabeled merchandise, incorrectly packed, loaded, or damaged merchandise, the Vendor will be immediately notified, and TF will act accordingly to the scope of the failure impact extension.

NOTE: In Exhibit B of this guide, you will find the charges applicable for non-conformities found.

X. RECEIVING REQUIREMENTS

1. General

Transnational Foods performs quality checks on every item. To maintain product flow and accurate payment of invoices, all products must conform to purchase order agreements, and the requirements listed below.

When an item does not meet purchase order agreements and below requirements, a CAPA (Corrective Action Preventive Action) Report will be sent to the vendor representative to be completed according to the non-conformity. Please note that each non-conformity is reviewed and depending on the severity and/or reoccurrences, applicable charges will apply.

Live Loads

Transnational Foods requires appointments. If the driver does not have a confirmation number and appointment time or if the confirmation number and appointment times are invalid, the driver will be directed to call his or her dispatcher.

Failure to meet the appointment time assigned/requested or failure to obtain an appointment prior to delivery creates additional administrative work and can deteriorate receiving performance. Due to this, failure to meet the appointment time assigned/requested or failure to obtain an appointment prior to delivery may result in a charge back.

Bills of Lading and Packing Lists

Transnational Foods requires the carrier or vendor to provide in English, a legible bill of lading consigning a shipment to the proper Transnational Foods destination for each shipment. Complete and accurate bill of lading and packing list information is critical for productive and accurate receipt of product at the Warehouse and timely payment of invoices by Accounts Payable.

Vendors that do not supply a complete and accurate bill of lading and packing list will be subject to a charge back.

The bill of lading must list the following information:

1. Vendor Name and Address
2. The complete Transnational Foods Destination Address
3. Total weight and carton count
4. Transnational Foods Purchase Order Number with the associated
5. Description/Item and UPC
6. Number of cases and/or selling units shipped per SKU per P.O.
7. Ship Date
8. Total Number of Cartons on Container

Note: If it is not possible to indicate all this information on the bill of lading, vendors must attach a copy of the packing list (please see above sample packing list) with this information to the bill of lading.

However, your bill of lading must include the Transnational Foods department and purchase order numbers.

Shortages/Overages

Vendors are required to ship all purchase orders as written with exact quantities requested.

Incorrect quantities slow down, and in some cases, stop the receiving process, and cause delays in payment. In addition, incorrect quantities make it difficult to maintain proper in-stock levels for our customers and maintain excellent inventory turns. Failure to ship the quantity stated on the purchase order may result in a vendor charge back.

Correct port

Transnational Foods has many ports of discharge. Failure to send the product to the appropriate port of discharge results in lost sales, decreased turns, increased labor, and increased transportation costs. It is imperative that purchase orders are shipped to the correct port.

Documents

The following are the documents required for products to be admitted into the United States by USCBP. Vendors need to prepare and send them to the e-mails referenced below.

ISF (Importing Security Filing) – sent to: TenPlusTwo@tfinc.com

Commercial invoice

Packing list

HBL

Certificate of Analysis

Certificate of Orig

Health Certificate if applicable

Phytosanitary Certificate if applicable

Documents@tfinc.com

Note: ISF must be filled 48 hours before vessel departure at origin. Late ISF filling can be fined up to $10,000 by US Customs.

Pallet and Slip Sheet Loads

All loads whether floorloaded, palletized or slip sheet, must be shipped with sufficient proper bracing and desiccant bags and/or container liners.

Loads arriving without and/or improper desiccant bags results in condensation (see below). This causes damage to products upon receipt, resulting in additional labor and delayed production.

Shipping labels are to be facing out with 2 to 4 labels per master case, opposite one another.

Transnational Foods recommends a stacking height of 62 inches. Product should not extend over the edge of the pallet and should have only one SKU per pallet. Pallet loads should not exceed 2500 pounds.

Loads with more than one sku per container, each sku must be segregated. This can be done by placing indicators, for example a thin slip sheet, wrap, net, etc. Purchase orders and lots must not be mixed up on a pallet or slip-sheet. See: Exhibit B of this guide, you will find the charges applicable for non-conformities found

To ensure load stability and eliminate confusion at check-in, consistent interlocking pallet patterns are preferred. Column stacked loads should be stabilized with shrink-wrap and have consistent layers. The use of bands to stabilize loads is discouraged due to the increased work and safety hazards they present in the warehouses. If there is void space in the container, fill void space with air bags and/or secure load locks to secure the load.

Loads must be properly and neatly stacked. Loads that are in a mess or disarray, bent or crushed cartons resulting from improperly loaded product often results in damages and/or loss of sales. These non-conformities may result in refusal of load and/or subject to penalties.

Correct Merchandise

The merchandise received must be the same merchandise described on the purchase order.

Shelf Life

All products received must have at least 80% of their shelf life at the time it is received into our DC. The time will start counting from the moment we open the container at destination (any warehouse in the US, Mexico, or Canada)

All cases will be checked at receiving and suppliers will be notified if any product is short dated. From that moment the product will be available for the supplier and kept in our facility for a reasonable time waiting for supplier's instructions.

All storage and disposal charges if applicable will be charged to the supplier.

Bracing

When loading, the merchandise should be placed in a secure manner. The load should be secured with a strong netting, plywood with 4x4. Airbags or similar may be used as fillers. All bracing must withstand the weight of the product upon impact.

Labels

As mentioned in this guide, all products received must bear the last version of the label approved by our QA Department. Failure to comply with this requirement will lead to a “Wrong Label / Wrong Barcode Fee” See:

Transnational Foods may opt to return the product to the vendor if a solution may not be possible or the final re-worked product does not meet the minimum TF’s standards of quality.

These are a few examples of wrong labeling:

- a- Label fails to bear all/some claims (health, allergens, ingredients, weight, etc).
- b- Label is not readable due to poor printing (words fading, wrong ink colors, etc.)
- c- Barcode is not readable by barcode scanners.

Suppliers will be held responsible for any damage and other expenses resulting from supplying products in glass jars that do not meet this minimum standard.

Cases Vertical Load Resistance (2 load resistance cases)

The boxes and trays from the master case should have the strength to maintain their structure during normal handling and storage. The product will be stored on pallets, up to 90in, and should be able to double stack without compromising the integrity and quality of the Product. Upon Receipt of product, if box construction is found to not meet minimum packaging specifications, then Corrective Action will be submitted, and product may require to be re-boxed at the expense of the Supplier.

Note: Vendor should notify Transnational Foods, if due to the nature of product, double stacking is not recommended.

Social and Ethical Compliance

The United States Government has prohibited the import into the United States of goods "mined, produced, or manufactured wholly or in part" by convict, forced, or indentured labor.

As per the Trade Facilitation and Trade Enforcement Act (TFTEA), which entered into force in 2016, the US has eliminated the consumptive demand exception. This amendment of US law was motivated by significant attention to the importation and sale in the United States of forced labor—produced goods such as seafood, cocoa, and cotton.

To comply with US Law requirements, we need all our vendors to upload in Repositrak, either i) an Ethical and Social Accountability Compliance certificate, like for example: Global SA8000 or SMA Certifications; or, ii) complete and upload the form named Social & Ethical Compliance provided by Transnational Foods.

XIII. REGULATORY AGENCIES DETENTION OR REJECTION

United States of America Regulatory Agencies are the ultimate authorities to accept or reject any shipment, based on Public Safety concerns and lack of established quality metrics implemented set by US Regulatory Agencies. The acceptance criteria of any product are established by the FDA and USDA and can be viewed on their respective websites. In the event your-shipped product does not meet the regulatory established criteria, and to get a release from the regulatory agency, the product may be required to be reconditioned or simply sent back from the US. In the event your product is determined to be reconditioned or shipped back, all the associated charges in the reconditioning or reshipping will be charged back to your account, including but not limited to all the applicable charges because of Regulatory Compliance Verifications Delays as stated in RCVA section. Please see Exhibit B of this guide, you will find a list fee charges applicable.

Under Proposition 65 businesses are required to provide a "clear and reasonable" warning before knowingly and intentionally exposing anyone to a listed chemical, unless the business can show that the anticipated exposure level will not pose a significant risk of cancer or is significantly below levels observed to cause birth defects or other reproductive harm. Food vendors are required to label the products accordingly. Therefore, Vendor must inform Transnational Foods if the products sold to Transnational Foods contain any of the listed products. For a complete list of products refer to:
